

Responsibility Reflection

We have two weeks before the Christmas break. This is a time to reflect on the birth of our savior. Our savior calls us to:

- (a) Act morally and legally as persons formed in Catholic traditions.
- (b) Accept accountability for our own actions.
- (c) Seek and grant forgiveness.
- (d) Promote the sacredness of life.
- (e) Be a witness of Catholic social teaching by promoting equality, democracy, and solidarity for a just, peaceful and compassionate society.
- (f) Respect and affirm the diversity and interdependence of the world's peoples and cultures.
- (g) Respect and understand the history, cultural heritage and pluralism of today's contemporary society.
- (h) Exercise the rights and responsibilities of Canadian citizenship.
- (i) Respect the environment and use resources wisely.
- (j) Contribute to the common good.

I encourage each and every one of us to take the time to reflect on these statements. Choose one statement per day and reflect on it.

I would also like to remind our community that responsibility begins with following basic rules like treating each other with respect, dressing appropriately, wearing our uniform appropriately and respecting all school rules.
